MINSTREL LADS MAY "HOOF IT" TO METROPOLIS

Milford Porter and Jesse Barker, the two Boston youths who were arrested yesterday afternoon for attaching themselves to a freight car, were allowed to go by Judge Foster this morning in the city court, and placed in charge of the probation officer. It appears that the youths are minstrel boys, who are quite lively on their feet, who were beating their way to New York where they expect to get odd jobs at the many summer resorts.
Their money gave out before they left the Hub, but they were undaunted.
The probation officer has looked them up and found their story correct. They will now attempt to hoof it to the metropolis.

ing to Mrs. James McGregor in Burn-insurance. The fire is supposed to have started from a defective fuse, but was discovered in time to destroy the contents of the house. The fire consumed several surrounding buildings and for a time it was feared that these would also be destroyed.

THAT JERSEY COW SURE ENOUGH SAM CARDOWSKY'S IS

Sam Cardowsky, the kosher butcher, is a happy man to-day, as Julius Egry, of 119 Hancock avenue, who accused him of having a cow in his yard, has admitted that the cow is not his, and has made an attempt to send it back to Car-dowsky after he attacked it in a suit for $75. Sam said that he had been served with papers in a suit for $75 and notified to appear before Justice Henry P.
Lyons on June 10, and that he would be there. Egry took the case to court and the slaughterhouse when Cardowsky refused to take it and the kosher butcher says that Egry must go from Hancock avenue to seek justice. Cardowsky her as he is not going to bother with himself. He would rather sell her to Egry for $75 alive than $30 killed.
Egry is still without his three year old cow which he lost last Monday and although he was positive the cow in Egry's possession was his property his wife said "no" when she went to milk the critter. She found the animal had only three mammas while the bossy she lost had four.

MOTHER FEARS FLOATING BODY THAT OF SON

Mrs. James Rosindale, residing at 601 Lafayette street, appeared at police headquarters today concerning the whereabouts of her 13 year old son, James, who has been missing for four weeks. Mrs. Rosindale did not begin to worry till the rest in the papers of the finding of the body of a young man in the East River, in New York.
She told the authorities that the boy was good, and industrious, having worked steadily in the Grant Manufacturing Co. in John street, and that he always handed over his pay to her.
She said that the mother was going to get a job for both of them with the circus.

KILEY-O'LEARY NUPTIALS MONDAY AT ST. AUGUSTINES

The marriage of Mr. Eugene Kiley and Miss Lena O'Leary will take place with a nuptial mass at St. Augustine's church on Monday morning, July 5.
The bride to be is a prepossessing young woman and is well deserving of the popularity which she holds among a legion of friends. Miss O'Leary is a daughter of Thomas O'Leary of 1818 Park avenue, to whom she is decidedly popular, and has long held a position as saleswoman for the Warner Brothers Corset Co. A tour through New York State will be made, and the summer spent at the Thousand Islands. Mr. Kiley and Miss O'Leary had planned to make their union a quiet affair without announcing it to their friends, but such matters will not and now the young people are being showered with congratulations.

INCOME TAX VOTE NEXT MONDAY

(Special from United Press.) Washington, July 3.—A vote will be taken by the Senate at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon on the question of submitting to the States a constitutional amendment authorizing Congress to collect taxes on incomes. Resolutions on this subject introduced by Brown of Nebraska and Aldrich of Rhode Island are pending. When the Senate meets today, Brown asked for an immediate vote upon his resolution. Aldrich said he was willing to have a vote if there would be little discussion or none at all.

McLaurin said that without desiring to be discourteous he did not think that Congress ought to zig zag around the conflicting decisions of the Supreme court. It ought to pass a law taxing uniformly all incomes instead of taxing only those derived from corporations. He suggested that the Supreme court be asked to decide the question. (Republican, Montana.) It was then decided to vote on the resolution Monday afternoon.

Officer "Mike" Malone, Former Bridgeport Boy Buried at Long Island

Michael Malone, a member of the New York police force, lately stationed at Whitehouse, L. I., was buried yesterday at that place and there were several Bridgeporters present at the obsequies. The deceased was a native of Church street, this city, and shortly after attaining his majority he left here for New York where he obtained work as a mechanic. Shortly after he was appointed a policeman and for 15 years was a member of the famous "Broadway Squad", acknowledged in the world as one of the finest ap-her marriage in 1864 came to Bridgeport to reside, but remained only a few years when she returned to New past thirty-five years.

noon from his late residence, 2293 Fair-

BIGAMY BRINGS BALLOG INTO LAW'S CLUTCHES

"But I love my wife in Bridgeport, and I don't love my wife in Hungary." Judge, pathetically said Frank Bal-log, to Judge Carl Foster, in the city court, this morning, in explanation of the offense of bigamy for which he was being tried.

With the greatest simplicity Ballog told the court about his wife in Hungary and about his two children there, which are situated on the banks of the Danube, all in the idea that this was a free country in which a citizen could easily be on with a new wife before his old one was dead.

The purchase includes three farms containing in all 850 acres, and the price is said to be $50,000. Work will be begun at once on the new orphanage which is to cost $200,000. There are now on the estate four dwellings and six barns, all of which will be made use of. The administration of the asylum will be entrusted to the most prominent members of the Union, among whom was the Rev. Father Matthew Jankola of this city, who is chaplain of the Union; Michael Senko, recording secretary of the national body, and Andrew Stihlik.

DISPUTE OVER BLAME FOR LITTLE BOY'S INJURY BY BURNING

Arthur Ousterhout, the four years old boy, who was severely burned while playing about a bonfire three weeks since must remain in St. Vincent's hospital three weeks longer. The charities department has been so informed. Mr. and Mrs. William Ousterhout, the parents, allege that Maurice Rowe, who keeps a store in the building where they reside, should pay some of the charges, because he built the fire. Rowe disclaims responsibility.

IN THE CITY COURT

Andrew Messinienna who on June 24 stabbed Gaetano Padula in the abdomen with a quarrel, was this morning bound over to the Superior court under bonds of $500. Padula and Messinienna on the day in question quarrelled on Main street. The fracas had been apparently quieted, but on Elm street Messinienna stabbed Padula with almost fatal results. Padula is at present at St. Vincent's hospital where he is doing well.

Officer Simon McCullough accosted Steven Mareski and John Koch last evening in Railroad avenue, warning them about riding their bicycles without a light. The men alighted from their wheels, but when they got about 50 feet away from the officer remonstrated. The officer gave chase and caught Mareski. Later on in the evening Koch appeared at the Third Precinct station with a friend to go on Mareski's bond. He was nabbed and rushed into a cell. This morning in the city court Mareski was fined $1 and costs while Koch was fined an extra dollar and costs. Koch was given this extra fine, for being fresh with the court, to whom he tried to explain that he could not understand English. Officer McCullough said that when Koch was arrested he could speak English well enough.
